Research Coordinator Position at UCLA ADRC

The Anxiety & Depression Research Center (ADRC) at University of California, Los Angeles is looking to hire a research coordinator, with the position beginning as early as November, 2018. Under the supervision of Michelle Craske, Ph.D., Aileen Echiverri-Cohen, Ph.D., and Amy Sewart, MA, the research coordinator will coordinate two novel intervention studies for the treatment of anxiety and depression. Responsibilities include scheduling participants, running behavioral sessions, training research assistants on data entry and related tasks, conducting semi-structured interviews (e.g. SCID), and managing study data. The research coordinator will also focus on participant retention and maintain contact with study participants. Experience with online questionnaire platforms and psychophysiological data collection is preferred.

Applicants should 1) apply through official HR posting below and 2) send cover letter and CV to Amy Sewart, MA at amysewart@ucla.edu.
