

2014 Summer Research Internship

Program

June 1 – August 2, 2014

Exciting research projects in finance, economics, marketing, management, decision making, and data analytics

Work one-on-one with leading faculty and researchers

Apply analytical and quantitative skills in an intellectually stimulating environment

Opportunities for intellectual growth and development

On-campus housing and a stipend for other expenses will be provided

Requirements

Bachelor's candidates, preferably in junior year (Superior sophomores and MS students will be considered)

Target majors include quantitative fields such as economics, business, statistics, mathematics, physics, engineering, CS, as well as the social and behavioral sciences

Enthusiasm for research and intellectual curiosity is a must

Familiarity with statistical software, computational packages, scripting languages, databases, or general programming languages

Apply

For more information, go to:
www8.gsb.columbia.edu/research/internship/

Applications (including resume, cover letter, and transcript) must be submitted online at:

www8.gsb.columbia.edu/research/internship/application

Applications reviewed on a rolling basis, so apply ASAP. Only qualified candidates will be contacted for interview

Applications will be accepted until 11:59PM March 2, 2014