

Position Available at University of Pennsylvania Center for Psychotherapy Research

Position: Psychology Research Assistant
Start Date: June 2015

DUTIES:

Responsible for helping to coordinate an NIMH funded research program focused on evaluating the effectiveness and mechanisms of change of interventions for mental disorders in community settings, including studies of those with HIV and mental disorders. Duties include preparing study materials; managing diagnostic interviewers at community sites; documenting and reporting adverse events; coordinating study-related IRB paperwork; providing statistical summaries and reports of progress for studies; assisting with subjects recruitment; assisting with coordination of database; assisting with data analysis and manuscript preparation. Opportunities for presentation and publication are available.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Minimum qualification for this position is BA or BS from approved University or college. Psychology degree and interest in pursuing graduate education in clinical psychology preferred for this position. Candidates must be able to work independently, deal effectively with professional staff/associates, and be detail-oriented. Candidates are required to be computer literate and have working knowledge of Microsoft Word processing and spreadsheet packages. Knowledge of Microsoft Access, Excel, and Publisher a plus. Candidates must also be willing to make a 2 year commitment to the position.

CONTACTS:

Mary Beth Connolly Gibbons, Ph.D.

Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

Send cover letter and resume to gibbonsm@mail.med.upenn.edu