

Honor Code Affirmation and Acknowledgements

Members of the Harvard College community commit themselves to producing academic work of integrity – that is, work that adheres to the scholarly and intellectual standards of accurate attribution of sources, appropriate collection and use of data, and transparent acknowledgement of the contribution of others to their ideas, discoveries, interpretations, and conclusions. Cheating on exams or problem sets, plagiarizing or misrepresenting the ideas or language of someone else as one’s own, falsifying data, or any other instance of academic dishonesty violates the standards of our community, as well as the standards of the wider world of learning and affairs.

I, _____, affirm my awareness of the standards of the Harvard College Honor Code stated above. This essay represents my work and my work only. Ideas and words that are not my own have been cited and quoted appropriately and accurately. Additionally, I would like to acknowledge the following people and/or resources who assisted in the development of my essay:
