

Part-time research coordinator position at Drexel University:

Applicants are being sought for a part-time research coordinator (20 hours per week) in the research lab of Dr. Michael Lowe, located within the Department of Psychology at Drexel University in Philadelphia, PA. The position is for one-year, with the possibility of transitioning to full-time pending further grant support. The position involves coordinating ongoing studies, participating in the analysis and write-up of papers stemming from two recent NIMH grants, helping with grant applications and carrying out various administrative tasks. The lab studies behavioral and biological variables contributing to eating disorders and obesity (see: <https://drexel.edu/coas/academics/departments-centers/psychology/research/health-psychology/biobehavioral-study-of-eating-and-weight-lowelab/>). In addition to grant-funded research, it has collaborated on research for many years with the Renfrew Center for eating disorders. This is an excellent opportunity to gain experience in eating disorders research and to be trained in preparation of manuscripts for publication. This position is ideal for individuals who are considering pursuing a graduate degree in psychology in the future. This research group is staffed by faculty, research coordinators, clinical psychology Ph.D. and masters students, and undergraduate students, providing an environment rich in intellectual stimulation and mentorship.

Qualifications:

- College graduate with coursework in psychology
- Interest in eating behavior research; strong quantitative skills desirable
- Strong organizational, interpersonal, computer and communication skills
- Position to start as soon as possible

Interested candidates should send 1) cover letter, including relevant past experience, 2) resume or CV, and 3) contact information for three references to Michael Lowe, Ph.D. at lowe@drexel.edu. Please specify "Research Coordinator Application" in the subject line of your email. Applicants are encouraged to submit their materials as soon as possible but no later than April 15, 2020.
