Dear Psychology Seniors,

Announcements for This Week:

- Psy 1508: How to Nudge: Using Social Psychology and Decision Science to Change Behavior and Policy will be offered again in the spring! We had the rare opportunity to offer this course a second time in an academic year.
- Be on the lookout for odds & ends emails that we send over the break with information including job postings, fellowships, graduate programs, and more

Sincerely yours,

Laura Chivers
