

Lab Manager in the Umanath Memory and Aging Lab Claremont McKenna College

The Umanath Memory and Aging Lab in the Department of Psychological Science is hiring a full-time lab manager with benefits. The lab manager will support ongoing research in the lab, from data collection and management to scheduling and coordinating undergraduate research assistants. More specifically, the lab manager will be responsible for organizing and overseeing the research outlined by Professor Umanath's National Science Foundation CAREER grant, with a particular focus on the aspects of the project related to older adults and coordinating undergraduate research assistants. Under normal circumstances, this position requires reporting to the lab on regular basis. Position starts August 2024.
